All-Star Shredding Ltd. website - What information we gather

In general, you may visit our website without identifying yourself or revealing any personal information. All-Star Shredding Ltd. collects domain information from your visit to customize and improve your experience on our website.

This website may collect certain information from your visit, including the date and time of your access, the pages you have accessed, the name of the Internet Service Provider and the Internet Protocol (IP) address by which you are accessing the internet, and the internet address from which you linked to our site, if applicable. We use this information to better understand how our website is being used so that we can improve its performance.
Some portions of the website may request that you give us information about yourself, from which we are able to identify you e.g. your name, email or other address. Some ways in which we may collect information from you are via our “contact us form”.

Use of the information we gather

When we collect information about you, we intend to tell you why we are asking for the information and what we intend to do with it. You will have the option of not providing the information, in which case you may still be able to access other parts of this website, although you may not be able to access certain services. In certain areas of our website, we may, where appropriate, enable you to ‘opt in’ to certain uses of your information e.g. personal data and direct marketing. Data will not be held for longer than is necessary and general customer details will be held while you are a customer.

The information we collect about you or your computer is used to run the website, respond to your requests or process any transactions you have requested.

Sharing information with third parties

In certain instances, we may make your information available to third parties with whom we have a relationship where that third party is providing services on our behalf. We will only provide those third parties with information that is necessary for them to perform the services and we take measures to protect your information.

All-Star Shredding Ltd. may disclose information it has collected about you on the website if required to do so by law or when necessary to protect the rights of All-Star Shredding Ltd. or its employees.

Data Security

It is our intent to strictly protect the security of your personal information; honor your choice for its intended use; and carefully protect your data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access or disclosure, alteration or destruction. We have taken appropriate steps to safeguard and secure information we collect online.

However, you should always take into consideration that the internet is an open forum and that data may flow across networks with little or no security measures, and therefore such information may be accessed by people other than those you intended to access it.

How to update and/or amend the personal information you have provided

Article 28 Clause

Specifically, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (mainly Article 28) requires the inclusion of certain clauses in the service level agreements between Data Controllers and Data Processors (namely All-Star Shredding Ltd.) as follows:

“In providing the services, the Service Provider may process personal data as defined under the General Data Protection Regulation and implementing legislation (‘applicable data protection law’) and:

(a) The Service Provider shall comply with all its obligations under applicable data protection law for the purposes of this Agreement both as a data processor and to assist the data controller with its compliance with applicable data protection law as data controller;

(b) The Service Provider agrees that it has appropriate technical, organizational and security measures in place against unauthorised or unlawful processing of the personal data or its accidental loss, destruction or damage as required to comply with applicable data protection law and the terms of this Agreement. The Service Provider shall permit the Data Controller at reasonable times and on reasonable notice to audit such measures to ensure compliance with applicable data protection law;

(c) The Service Provider shall process the personal data in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and on the written instructions of the Data Controller. This processing will take place in the European Economic Area only and must not be transferred outside of this area unless the Data Controller gives its separate consent in writing;

(d) The Service Provider agrees that it will only engage sub-processors with the separate consent of the Data Controller in writing. If the Data Controller provides this consent, the Service Provider further agrees to comply with all applicable data protection law as regards the appointment of sub-processors and contractual requirements;

(e) The Service Provider shall report any incident which is in breach of the terms of this Agreement, applicable data protection law or which gives rise to a risk of such breach or the risk of unauthorised disclosure, loss, destruction or alteration of such personal data to the Data Controller immediately on becoming aware of such an incident and provide all reasonable co-operation and assistance so that both parties can comply with their respective data protection obligations which includes without limitation the provision of whatever information the Data Controller requires and granting the Data Controller access for audits or inspections;
(f) The Service Provider shall provide the Data Controller with all reasonable co-operation and assistance as may be necessary to deal with any request for access to personal data made under applicable data protection law for the purposes of this Agreement;

(g) On termination of this Agreement, the Service Provider agrees to return to the Data Controller all personal data processed under this Agreement and/or delete this whatever the Data Controller requests."
